Month-Long Efforts:

Nevada Governor, Brian Sandoval, issued a Proclamation by the Governor, declaring April Sexual Assault Awareness Month across the state of Nevada.

Fallon Domestic Violence Intervention (DVI): Look for the section in the local newspaper of Mayor Ken Tedford issuing the SAAM Proclamation for the City of Fallon.

WDVS: Winnemucca Domestic Violence Shelter distributing teal ribbons for local law enforcement officers' personal and professional vehicles. These ribbons will also be available to community members.

ALIVE: Lyon County ALIVE will be celebrating Denim Day throughout the month. Stop by their Yerington and Fernley offices to pick up your specially decorated Denim Day pin. Contact information is above.

AVR: Alliance for Victims' Rights in Washoe County will host a variety of events throughout National Crime Victims' Rights Week. Contact information is above. Call for details.

Safe Nest: Look for sexual violence awareness posters throughout the Las Vegas libraries.

Subtle Warrior Self Defense: Open to holding free self-defense workshops in Elko County throughout the month of April. Contact Lisa Abbott at subtle_warrior@yahoo.com

North Las Vegas Police Department: Look for SAAM Displays in the lobbies of the Police Departments and the local library. Teal ribbons will be hung and the Proclamation by the Mayor will be displayed throughout the month.

City of Las Vegas: Issued a proclamation for the city declaring SAAM.
